Roadmap and commitment FSI Accelerator Group

Dutch Flower Group, FM Group, Floral Trade Group en Royal Lemkes

Establishment of FSI

Established Floriculture Sustainability Initiative in 2012 organisation with the purpose I goal of 90% responsibly produced flowers and plants by 2020.

Non-profit organisation

In 2013, FSI became an independent international non-profit members organisation from Brussels.

Manifesto

Manifesto from the joint FSI Accelerator Group committing to 90% FSI-compliant sourcing by 2020 (DFG, RFH Royal Lemkes and FM Group).

FSI-Accelerators initiative

Floral Trade Group and VGB are joining the FSI Accelerators initiative in 2021.

FSI-commitment

FSI commitment remains in place; a minimum volume of sustainably sourced flowers and plants of 90% with tightened "basket" require-

Proactively activate trading companies and KOA-customers to move to FSI-compliant certification.

FSI-compliant

 All plants 100% FSI-compliant.

 The product groups flowers Rose and Chrysanthemum are 100% FSI-compliant.

FSI-compliant

The Tulip product group is 100% FSI-compliant.

Certification

The named companies will phase in 100% of their entire own procurement in line with the certifications.

ments.

1/6/202

1/6/2020

100% FSI certified

Manifesto

Manifesto from the ioint FSI-Accelerator Group committing to 90% by 2020 (DFG, RFH Royal Lemkes and Fleura Metz).

Environmental registration

Digital environmental registration for all members and growers (non-members) of RFH.

FSI-requirements

2021: Growers with FSI logo visible on RFH platform based on FSI2020 requirements. 2022: Growers with FSI logo visible on RFH platform based on tightened FSI2025 requirements.

Environmental certificate

Growers without an environmental certificate visible on the clock.

FSI-certification

Member with Direct flex, Direct focus and Clock flex meet the FSI-certification requirements:

- Environmental certificate +
- GAP-certificate
- Social certificate

Standards

Growers, (nonmembers) must comply by 1/1/26 to FSI basket of standard certification requirements.

Clock Focus

Members with package Clock Focus can trade on the Royal FloraHolland Platform at least until 1/1/2027 without a certificate.

Roadmap en commitment van Royal FloraHolland Growing greener together

2022: Start of Floriculture accelerators.

🛨 Certification conditions will be maintained.

